

Asian Fusion Dinner

February 27th, 2010 starting at 6 pm

Hosted by Tom and Gillie Hickman, Nancy Jo Heaton and Connie Gillmar.

This evening is going to be an experience for those who come to learn and experience fine curries that have been discovered, and now shared, by Tom & Gillie Hickman. Their extensive travels (see the December Pilot article) to India, Burma, Thailand, Laos, Vietnam, Cambodia, Bali and, of course, Singapore and Malaysia have given them great interest in finding and developing the skill to make the curries from the regions they have visited.

Gillie and Tom will present a sampler of curries from each of these areas along with some of the typical sides and sauces. The Hickmans are searching out the best local ingredients for developing the menu.

To cap off the evening we will have two musicians who will play for us. Christopher Ris has been mentored by India's Sarod maestro Ali Akbar Khan for 35 years. Dana Pandey has studied extensively and performed with India's renowned tabla maestro Zakir Hussein in both India and the U.S.

Reservations are limited so your check is your reservation. Send $16 to Connie Gillmar at 1900 Broadway, San Francisco, CA 94109

We are unable to offer childcare downstairs for this event.
