

Inverness Yacht Club.

Super Bowl Sunday. 110 Regatta and Youth Sailing Fundraiser.

Sunday February 7. Doors open at 2.00 pm.

We are trying to raise money, so bring your wallets! In no particular order we have for your entertainment:

A $5 door fee that gives an IYC embossed beer or wine glass of your choice.

Draft beer from Marin Brewing Company and half decent wine. Very reasonable charge!

Tri Tip Sandwiches by our Cordon Bleu Chef Ken Twinning. Dirt cheap.

Salads, Garlic Bread, and all the stuff that should go along with that. Almost free.

Big Wide Screen TV to watch the game on. Free if you pay to get in!

Ping Pong, Darts. Again, if we let you in they are free.

And the best silent auction you have ever attended. Items include:

- 2 nights at the Inverness Valley Inn
- 2 nights at the Inverness Motel
- 2 meals (no booze) at Vladimirs
- $100 gift certificate at the Olema Inn
- $25 gift certificate to Drakes Bay Oyster
- Something at the Boatel/Thai restaurant. My memory is fuzzy as to what it is but it will be alright on the night! My memory that is.
- The Noble House for six nights. 3 Beds and sleeps gazillions if good friends.
- Konrad Alt/ Maureen Kennedy's house for 2 weekend nights or 4 mid-week.
- A full size pick up truck of split oak.
- A yacht sail on SF Bay for 4 kids with race winning skipper Ken Hutter and crew.
- A kids picnic sail to Kilkenny Beach on a Weta Trimaran or Johnson 18. One per boat. Sandwiches, Soda and laughs included.
- Four tickets to the Porchlight Theater Companies presentation of "Les Liasons Dangereuses", a witty tragedy where two rivals delight in inventing sexual games that humiliate and degrade others. (I thought that would go well with beer and the Super Bowl. P.L.)

So will you come, enjoy, and help get those kids out on the water?
Please?
